2013: Here we go.

Shown below is a photo of me that was taken during the performances of An Evening at Ford's Theatre (see 692.jpg, below). Dorothy Loney took some great photos during the performance, and I am very pleased to have some excellent photos of myself from that event.

2013 (as seen from the perspective of today, April 20, 2014) was a great year for SRP and photographs.
